St. James's, June 3, 1775.

WHereas it has been humbly repreſented to the King, That on the 3d Day of laſt March, Mr. Robert Hunter, Collector of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms at the Port of Montroſe in Scotland, did receive by the Poſt, under his Addreſs, an anonymous Threatening Letter, without either Date or Signature; and that on the 20th Day of April laſt, Mr. David Reid, Inſpector General of the Cuſtoms, did alſo receive an anonymous Threatening Letter, under his Addreſs, by the Poſt, ſigned "Nine" dated the 12th Day of April 1775; of which Letters the following are Copies, viz.

Sir

The receiving this Letter from an unknown hand, and unſubſcribed, may no doubt be matter of Wonder and Surpriſe to you, but as I always have a pleaſure of being Serviceable to mankind, and of preventing Miſchief when impending to any Perſon (altho' never ſo worthleſs) as much as lyes in my power, is the reaſon for my making free to acquaint you of the following particulars, the knowledge of which, I only got not many hours ago, If its well taken as a Caution ſhall be infinitely glad, which will beſt Appear by your after Conduct, If otherwiſe, I ſhall only think my trouble loſt, and whatever may be the Conſequence afterwards I ſhall be very indifferent.

Having occaſion yeſterday to be a few Miles from home on Buſineſs, I happened to fall in with a ſmall but Senſible Company, after talking over a great many Things, the Converſation turned at laſt upon a Subject altogether foreign to me, namely anent ſeveral Proſecutions which have of late been commenced againſt different Perſons in and about the neighbourhood of the Place you live in, particularly to the Northward, and was entirely confounded to hear, that you are the principal Inſtigator, and actor of ſuch helliſh Schemes, as commencing theſe Proſecutions to prove thoſe perſons to be Smugglers, or Importers of prohibited Goods, in order to which you with ſome others, your accomplices, have ſuborned a ſet of the moſt worthleſs Perjured, Infamous lowliv'd Rogues, that perhaps Scotland, nay, the whole world cannot produce ſuch like perfidious wretches, Conſummate Knaves, and the very dregs of mankind, yea, more Generoſity is to be had from the moſt ſavage Tyger, that roams in the wild of Nubia, If this is the caſe (which god, you, and your accomplices only know) I think you muſt undoubtedly be the moſt unhappy of all men — I naturally enquired, what motive, one in your office and Rank could have in ſuch wickedneſs, it was anſwered, your motives were thought to be partly Envy and Revenge, but moſtly mere nary, and that for a very inconſiderable triffle to yourſelf (after paying your Banditti) you pay no Regard to the ruining Individuals, or whole Families The men who you have injured ſo much, now after coming to the perfect knowledge, that you are the main Spring of action, are, and Juſtly raiſed to a Degree of rage next to Madneſs, and are ditermined, that if you do not immediately ſtop procedure in theſe matters, that you will be treated as a Common Enemy, and were their caſe mine, I would look upon you worſe than a Highwayman, and treat you as ſuch firſt opportunity, which I underſtand you have reaſon to expect, and if that ſhould happen (as god forbid) I am abſolutely convinced, the world would Juſtify the Action, and pray, what fine Reflection muſt your Family and Friends have, when they think of the great honours, you have brought on yourſelf and them. But allowing you ſtill go on in your ordinary Career, and meet with no diſaſter or Obſtacle, and that you get your wicked deſigns accompliſhed, that you cauſe a few people leave their Country, that you get them ruined to all Intents, that you get their families made deſtitute, and that by their deſtruction you get a number of thoſe deteſtable Knaves you emply, into low dirty Offices, to be always plotting, ſwearing and perjuring themſelves, as tools to your inflexible barbarity and voracious Appetite, pray what mighty Conqueſt do you make? — Yes, you make a few men that might live peaceable in their Families, Miſerable Vagabonds, and ſend thoſe ignorant fellows, who are ſubſervient to you, directly to the Devil, and yourſelf at their head. It might be thought that one of your ſenſe could never have thought of degrading yourſelf ſo much, by being engaged in ſo horrid actions, and with ſuch low paultry Company, which muſt render you infamous to the laſt degree, and without a ſpeedy amendment of your manners you muſt leave the world with a moſt abominable Character; and how hideous muſt your Reflections be, to think that you cannot ſurvive long, I may ſay, looking into the grave and ſuch a load of Iniquity on your back — pardon me for being ſo tedious, only let me add that if your years ſhall be lengthened yet ſometime, It will be your wiſdom to change your method to a better way of thinking, which if done muſt ſoon appear, otherwiſe blame yourſelf, if the Conſequences are fatal. I am.

Sir

Your Crimes are now at a height, your Oppreſſion and Influence in the exerciſe of your Office, are become ſo glaring that they call aloud for Vengeance, You truſt to your Friends, but there are ſome who pretend to be ſo who would be happy to ſee you ſacrificed to the Manes of injured Innocence — Know then proud villain, that as your Life is now become odious in the ſight of God and all good

Peoples

People, we are determined to put a period to it as ſoon as a proper Opportunity offers. We ſhall lye in wait for you, and take you off in an unguarded Hour, and ſend you to your infernal Adviſer with all your Imperfections on your head. It will be in vain for you to make any enquiry about the intended Perpetrators of that glorious deed as we have ſworn inviolable Secrecy. We hope ſoon to meet with you and clear Accounts. Nine.

Edinburgh 12:th April 1775.

N. B. By God you may be ſaying your Prayers.

His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſon or Perſons concerned in writing or ſending the ſaid Letters, is hereby pleaſed to promi e His moſt gracious Pardon to any of them, (except the Perſon or Perſons who actually wrote the ſaid Letters, or either of them) who ſhall diſcover his or her Accomplice or Accomplice therein, ſo that he, ſhe, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.
